

Yfc/kzn prayer calendar ...november2011

Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. 1 John 4:7	Tuesday 1 Thank God for a fundraising team that will work together, pray for them as they meet to put a fundraising plan together for 2012.	Wednesday 2 Pray for Sally, who will be attending South African Leadership team meetings this week.	Thursday 3 This is a busy month for submitting funding applications. Pray for wisdom as the applications are compiled.	Friday 4 Pray for the May'khethele team as they begin internal staff trainings that it may be a growing experience and it will be implemented in the service of God's kingdom.	Saturday 5 Thank God for the opportunity Lisa and Tineyi had to attend a sustainability forum to learn various ways to sustain our work and strengthen relationships with Pefpar partners, SA Government and Corporates through the CSI divisions.	Sunday 6 Thank God for Marieke's short visit to Khayaletu. We pray that it benefited both her and the children, and that she settles back with her family.
Monday 7 Pray for matriculants through out the country who are writing exams, that God would give them wisdom and guidance.	Tuesday 8 Pray for the Change Agents Team, who are working in partnership with KNH one of our donors in Germany for 2 weeks.	Wednesday 9 Carolyn and Lauren (our international volunteers) are working in the shelters with the boys and girls. Thank God for their commitment to these young people.	Thursday 10 Pray for Mlondi Makhathini as he works with Marketing to gain some experience, that he would feel welcome and learn much.	Friday 11 Pray for the Tennyson House Community project who are planning a youth camp this weekend, that it will be successful and have a positive impact on the lives of young people.	Saturday 12 Pray for the Khayaletu children as they work on the preparations for their Thanksgiving event. May they learn from this experience.	Sunday 13 Thank God for the continuous privilege to serve young people and their families.

Monday 14
Thank God for the exposure and encouragement received through YFC KZN Facebook page.

Tuesday 15
Pray for the May'khethele school facilitators who are changing schools, that they would build good relationships with children and teachers.

A hug is a gift from above

Isn't it amazing how much better we feel after a hug, if nothing in our circumstances has changed.

How, just knowing we aren't facing things alone that someone cares, can be enough to encourage us to go on.

God commanded us to love one another and He gave us the strength to do it with! When you give me a hug, I know that you love me and that God loves me too.

Yfc/kzn prayer calendar ..november2011

A hug is worth a thousand words. A hug speaks the language of the heart. A hug says so much more than words ever could. It brings wishes for strength when you are weary, courage when you are weak and joy for delightful days of sunshine.	Wednesday 16 Thank God for Aileen and Judith (our international volunteers) as they serve in the Swapo drop in centre. Pray for creativity for them, as they work with young people.	Thursday 17 Pray for protection upon our staff who drive daily especially those who transport our children as there have been many road accidents recently.	Friday 18 Pray for Mpho Gwala who is writing an exam today. Pray for her as she studies and prepares. She is doing her Social Worker Degree.	Saturday 19 Pray for Kego and her team as they host a family camp, we pray that this camp will strengthen relationships in families between children and parents.	Sunday 20 Pray for three boys from the Swapo community that we are working closely with, that God would continue to motivate them to persevere with their English, guitar and beadwork lessons until the end of the year.
Monday 21 Pray for wisdom as the YFC/KZN Board meet today.	Tuesday 22 Thank God for Albany Bakery, who supply bread, a daily necessity for the children in our shelters and community centres.	Wednesday 23 Thank God for Khanyo Mkhize, our Social Worker, her skill and gifting add such value to our work with young people.	Thursday 24 Thank God for Gary White, from St Martins Church as he leads a team of people who are upgrading the office premises in Durban.	Friday 25 Pray for the new team at May'khethele that they will quickly be integrated into the project.	Saturday 26 Thank God for a successful open day that we had in Durban and we appreciated having our National Director and all our networking partners support us.	Sunday 27 May God lead us as we become better people for the betterment of our communities.
Monday 28 Thank God for our partnership with Hayfields Baptist Church and their commitment to the upliftment of children in the Khayaalethu shelters.	Tuesday 29 Thank God for the Interns who served in YFC projects for 10 months and for their commitment and dedication. We ask for God's guidance as they plan to study and work.	Wednesday 30 Pray for Johanna, who is working at Site 11 drop in centre as she builds relationships with young people and staff.	A hug knits hearts together A hug – four arms wrapped around each other and drawing two hearts together for a moment. A hug is like a present tied together with a pretty bow – the outside is lovely but the real gift is what's hidden inside.
